Time To Kill

DCI Warren Jones Book 8

eBook June 2022

Paperback and Audiobook August 2022

Seven days until the killer strikes again – but who is next?

DCI Warren Jones is deep into the investigation into an apparent murder-suicide when another case is thrust onto his desk. Winnie Palmer, missing for two months, has been found dead, her body stripped and propped against a tree in the woods.

Two cases are more than enough to handle – but things get even harder for the team when they realise the cases might be linked. And when a third suspicious death is added to the pile, it raises a horrible question. Is there a serial killer on the loose?

With all the murders taking place on Sundays, it's a race against time to find the killer before they strike again. As the days tick by Warren desperately searches for a link between the victims – but the only thing he knows for sure is that absolutely anyone could be next...

Paul Gitsham

Creator of DCI Warren Jones

Brought up in Coventry, Paul Gitsham started his career as a biologist before retraining as a secondary school science teacher. Along the way, he had jobs as a receptionist in a sports centre, an analyst at a UK bank (ensuring that international terrorists and other ne'er do wells hadn't embarrassed the institution by opening a child's savings account with them in the past), and running a machine to stuff prize tickets into drinking straws for a promotion by a fast food chain.

Now living in Essex, he started writing his DCI Warren Jones series in 2011. Now numbering 12 books, Time To Kill is the 8th full-length novel in the series, with more in the pipeline.

Paul is a member of the Crime Writers' Association and International Thriller Writers.

The DCI Warren Jones series at a glance

First published in 2014, the DCI Warren Jones series is set in the fictional North Hertfordshire town of Middlesbury.

In book one of the series, The Last Straw, we meet newly-promoted DCI Warren Jones as he tackles his first investigation as Senior Investigating Officer, three weeks after his move to Middlesbury CID. The brutal slaying of a university professor not only exposes the seedier side of academia, it also highlights an unexpected undercurrent of politics and tensions within the police that threatens to undermine Warren's position before he's even started.

Warren Jones was born and bred in Coventry and joined the West Midlands Police, despite his own father's tragic history with the force. Promoted quickly through the ranks, Warren eventually moves to Hertfordshire Constabulary, taking over as DCI at Middlesbury CID, after its previous DCI left under a cloud.

Middlesbury CID is a unique 'first response' CID unit, dealing with major crimes in Middlesbury and the surrounding towns and villages. But budget cuts mean that the unit is constantly under threat of being closed and absorbed into Hertfordshire, Bedfordshire and Cambridgeshire's Major Crime Unit.

At home Warren's wife, Susan – a biology teacher - is his rock. The couple have a strong and happy marriage, and unlike many of his peers in fiction, Warren doesn't spend all his waking hours brooding and nursing a substance abuse problem. Warren grows to love the team he works with at Middlesbury, and forms a close relationship with them.

Over the course of the series, Warren and his team deal with serial rapists, far-right activists, family tragedies and hidden abuses within powerful organisations. Along the way, Warren and his team experience more than their own fair share of tragedy.
